

2010-2011

Let's Talk Money!

A partnership between the Iowa Newspaper Foundation and Wells Fargo to provide a free publication of curriculum materials to Iowa high school educators and students on banking and financial literacy.

Teaches financial literacy concepts and skills required of the Iowa Core

- Basic Money Management
- Identity Theft
- Wants and Needs
- Creating a Spending Plan
- Earning Money
- Creating Wealth
- Credit Building
- Credit Cards
- Insurance
- Investing in Yourself

Let's Talk Money! is free of charge to any Iowa school or newspaper. The program includes a student guide as well as a separate teacher's guide filled with discussion questions, activities and additional resources.

Let's Talk Money aligns with financial literacy components of Iowa core!

For additional information on Let's Talk Money!, contact Jana Shepherd at the Iowa Newspaper Foundation at 515-422-9051 or jshepherd@inanews.com

Let's Talk
Money!

2010-2011

Free financial literacy program for Iowa newspapers and schools

During the 2010-2011 school year, the Iowa Newspaper Foundation (INF) and Wells Fargo will be offering the Let's Talk Money! program for high school students. Through the support of Wells Fargo, the INF will supply free, printed classroom copies of the material to any Iowa school district.

The Iowa core aligned program includes:

- Student guides with tips and tools to teach financial literacy
- Teacher guides filled with discussion questions, activities and additional resources

Let's Talk Money! is designed to assist schools with the 21st Century skill requirements.

Encourage financial literacy among young people with the free Let's Talk Money! guides.

Let's Talk Money! Order Form

Please send _____ copies of the Let's Talk Money! Teacher's Guide

Please send _____ copies of the Let's Talk Money! Student Guide

Please send the materials to:

Name _____

Newspaper/School _____

Street address _____

City _____ Zip _____

Mail or fax this order form to:

Iowa Newspaper Foundation, 319 East 5th Street, Des Moines, IA 50309

FAX 1-866-593-7406

